Rarely does a property arrive to market that so effortlessly combines architectural elegance, breathtaking setting, and immaculate presentation. Set behind impressive electronic wrought iron gates on an elevated three-quarter acre site in the peaceful countryside of Ovidstown, Co. Kildare, this magnificent four-bedroom stone-cut dormer style bungalow is simply one of the finest homes to grace the market in this highly sought-after region.

From the moment you enter through those gates, the property makes a statement sweeping driveway, professionally landscaped mature gardens, and a commanding elevated position that captures sweeping views across the rolling plains of Kildare. Curb appeal of this calibre is rarely found at any price point.

A Home That Captivates From the Inside Out
Step inside and the tone is set immediately. A generous T-shaped hallway finished with solid wood flooring, dado rail coving, and a discreet intercom and alarm system creates an instant sense of space, warmth, and sophistication that flows through every room.

The sitting room is a showpiece: a striking black marble feature fireplace with polished granite hearth anchors the room, while solid wooden floors add timeless warmth underfoot. The living room offers an altogether cosier counterpoint a beautiful sandstone fireplace housing a wood-burning stove that will make winter evenings something to look forward to.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen is both beautiful and brilliantly functional. Hand-painted fitted cabinetry, crystal display cabinets, granite worktops, Chinese slate flooring, and quality integrated appliances create a space that is as pleasurable to cook in as it is to entertain from. An adjoining sunroom, flooded with natural light through its south-facing aspect, opens directly to the rear garden and patio seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. A fully fitted and plumbed utility room ensures that practicality is never sacrificed for style.

Four Bedrooms Thoughtfully Designed for Modern Family Life

This home accommodates family life beautifully across two levels. The ground floor offers two generous double bedrooms served by a luxuriously appointed family bathroom, complete with a corner Jacuzzi bath a genuine touch of indulgence.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom suite is a true retreat: a spacious room with a bespoke walk-in wardrobe and a private ensuite bathroom. A fourth bedroom on this level also benefits from its own ensuite an arrangement that makes hosting guests or accommodating a growing family entirely effortless.

Gardens & Grounds That Simply Steal the Show

Outside, this property enters another heavenly league. The mature, professionally landscaped gardens wrap the home in colour, structure, and privacy throughout every season. The elevated rear garden with its striking railway sleeper steps rising through carefully considered planting is as architectural as it is beautiful, and creates an outdoor setting worthy of the home it surrounds.

A substantial double detached garage with loft storage completes the picture practical, versatile, and a genuine bonus for any purchaser.

Location The Best of Both Worlds

Ovidstown offers that increasingly rare combination: true countryside tranquillity, without compromise on connectivity. The M4 motorway is just minutes away, placing Dublin city within comfortable commuting distance. Dublin Airport is approximately 40 minutes by car. The vibrant university town of Maynooth, as well as Kilcock, Newtown, and Enfield, are all close at hand, offering schools, shops, restaurants, and transport links in abundance.

In Conclusion

This is a home that must be experienced in person photographs, however good, cannot fully convey the scale, quality, and atmosphere on offer here. Early viewing is strongly advised, as interest at this level of the market is always significant.

This magnificent family home must be viewed to be truly appreciated. Early viewing is highly recommended.
